FOR 75TH ANNIVERSARY. At Central Baptist Church-Sever Officers Present Resignations.

After a summer recess the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary circle parlors of the Central Baptist church, of the First Baptist church began its regular meetings with Mrs. Herbert Willey of Asylum street.

A most enjoyable social held in the parlors of the Central Baptist church, was given Tuesday evening by the B Y. P. U. society.

A business meeting was called to regular meetings with Mrs. Herbert Willey of Asylum street.

The attendance was very gratifying and much interest wes shown for the winter's work.

Mrs. William G. Gilchrist, president, presided, opening the meeting by reading as the scripture lesson, John 15th. Prayer was offered by Mrs. George H. Strouse.

Following the reading of the accepted reports, the subject of the missionary barrel was discussed.

A letter from Miss May Houston was read by Mrs. Gilchrist upon the work at Ellis Island. It was voted, however, to send a barrel to the Mather school at Beaufort, N. C., where, at Miss Houston's suggestion, one was sent last winter.

The afternoon subject, "An Indian Programme," was taken up and several interesting papers were read.
